1. “The integrity of the traditional academy while simultaneously encouraging the adoption of platforms such as online learning, mobile technologies and resources that exist in the cloud” (Moskal, Dziuban, & Hartman, 2013)
2. Blended instruction has been more effective, compared to traditional face-to-face instruction, providing a rationale for the effort required to design and implement blended approaches (Means et al., 2009).

Harvard Moves Classes Online, Asks Students Not to Return After Spring Break In Response to Coronavirus

On Tuesday morning, Harvard University announced it would transition to virtual instruction for graduate and undergraduate classes after spring break. Harvard College students must vacate their houses and dorms by March 15. By Ryan N. Gajarawala

By The Crimson News Staff, Crimson Staff Writer
March 11, 2020

UPDATED: March 10, 11:30 p.m.

All Harvard courses will move to remote instruction beginning March 23 as a result of a growing global coronavirus outbreak, University President Lawrence S. Bacow announced in an email Tuesday morning. The University will also ask students not to return from spring break.

Spring recess officially begins this Saturday and concludes on March 22. The next day, students will attend classes virtually – a possibility Harvard University Health Services director Giang T. Nguyen and Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences Claudine Gay first raised at a faculty meeting earlier this month. Since then, tabs for the online meeting platform Zoom have popped up on course websites and many faculty have tested it with their classes.

Zoom (Live Broadcast)

- Requirements

- A quality headset, internal or external camera, and sufficient internet speed.
- Open an account (Instructor only).
- A second monitor (highly recommended).
- Graphic pen tablet (highly recommended).

Note: Pre-recorded videos are recommended in flipped classroom, but may not be effective for online teaching.

Before Starting a Semester

1. Save a week (say “week 0”, not a formal teaching week) for the practice of online teaching with various e-learning tools and course orientation.
2. “This week, you may send a welcome note to your students under “Announcement” on iSpace as well as set up a Q&A forum to answer their questions.... Please use this week to familiarize yourself with the online teaching mode and explore the use of the iSpace e-learning tools (e.g. discussion forum, feedback, polling, attendance, quizzes, etc.). ” (email from DST Dean/AVP on Feb 5)
3. Create course WeChat groups.

Welcome to Science of Well Being (1001)

by Yi-Lung KUO - Monday, 10 February 2020, 12:24 AM

Dear students,

Hope this message finds you well during the nCoV outbreak. My name is Yi-Lung Kuo, Associate Professor of Applied Psychology. I will be teaching your Science of Well Being (1001) this semester. Please feel free to call me Dr. Kuo or Yi-Lung. As you may receive messages from UIC, we will have “week 0” starting from February 10. The purpose of the week 0 is to help you to get familiar with e-learning tools and skills, while it is assumed that we are going to have online teaching and learning in coming weeks. Accordingly, we will meet online at 8am, February 11 to “start” our new semester! I hope you could get yourself warmed up and be ready for learning this course.

1. Join the WeChat course group

Attached is the WeChat QR code for this course. Please join the group and change your alias to “Program + English (Pinyin) Name” (Example: APSY-Yi-Lung Kuo)

2. Learn how to use Panopto Classroom

URL: <https://web.uic.edu.hk/en/itsc/services/information-system/7267-how-to-use-panopto-classroom-students>

I am looking forward to “meeting” you soon!

Best Regards,

Yi-Lung

2. Join the Zoom Meeting for Thursday class by clicking on the following link <https://zoom.us/j/388389276>
3. A quality headset, internal or external camera, and sufficient internet speed are required to have better online learning experiences.
4. Lastly, all class meetings will be recorded and upload to Panopto.

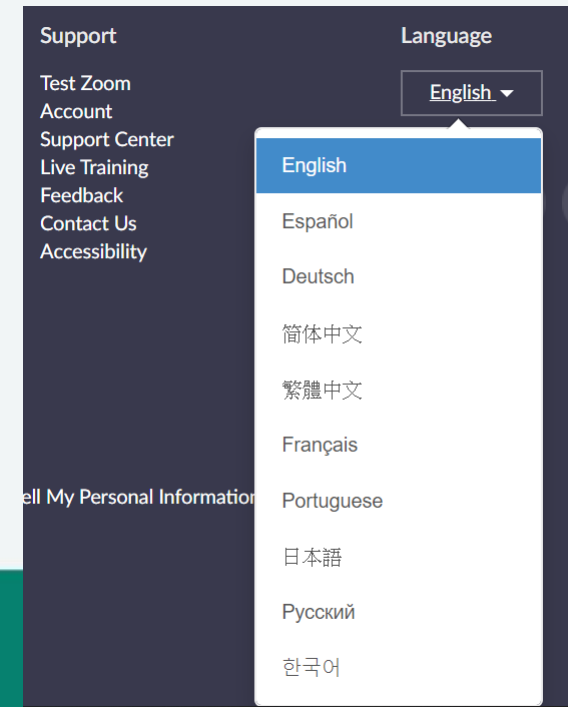

Zoom (Live Broadcast)

- Important Settings

- Set up a preferred language regardless of your registration site.
- Upload your profile picture.
- Turn on “Breakout room” and Co-host (Go “Settings”)
- Keep default settings unless specific functions are required.

The screenshot shows the Zoom account settings interface. On the left is a navigation menu with the Zoom logo at the top and options for PERSONAL, Profile, Meetings, Webinars, Recordings, and Settings (highlighted in blue). The main content area shows the 'Co-host' setting, which is turned on (blue toggle), with the description: 'Allow the host to add co-hosts. Co-hosts have the same in-meeting controls as the host.' Below this is the 'In Meeting (Advanced)' section, which includes the 'Breakout room' setting, also turned on (blue toggle), with the description: 'Allow host to split meeting participants into separate, smaller rooms'. Underneath, there is a checked checkbox for 'Allow host to assign participants to breakout rooms when scheduling' and a small icon for 'Allow host to assign participants to breakout rooms when scheduling'.

Zoom (Live Broadcast)

- During the first online class meeting (week 0)
 - Ask students to use official names (i.e., Pinyin) in Zoom through WeChat before or at the beginning of class.
 - No English name unless AR provides their English names in the name list.
 - Take attendance and make sure all students can access Zoom.
 - Ask students to turn on the mic (and/or video) and make responses when their names are called.
 - Ask if they could use “raise hand” functions.
 - Only use Zoom Group Chat to send text messages and files. No WeChat during the class meetings (unless they are told to do so).
 - Explicitly state ALL activities in the class meetings will be recorded and upload to Panopto for review.

Origin of life on the earth

- What are the sources of organic compound(s) in life? Did they originate from earth, space, or other planets?
- Some evidence suggests that the building materials of DNA and RNA may be from space.

Pros and Cons

• Pros

- Accessible in mainland China.
- No need to open an account at the student end.
- Commonly used in the international meetings.
- Free for less than 40-min meetings (e.g., US site).
- Apply effective pedagogies of face-to-face classroom online.

• Cons

- If Zoom is not embedded into Moodle, more work are required to upload it to the cloud (cloud services are available to purchase).

网课能填补

传统课堂教学的短板

应用心理学专业副教授郭奕龙博士：

若能善用在线学习管理系统、多样化的在线影音或会议平台及实时通讯软件等，网络教学质量甚至比无网络教学平台辅助的传统课堂教学更有保障。

透过Zoom(在线会议平台)来直播课程，老师能透过"分享屏幕"的方式，让每位学生坐在电脑前就能清楚看到老师课前准备的PPT或影片，亦可分享自己的PPT进行课堂报告。若是传统大班授课，坐在教室后面的学生，很可能因为坐太远、老师板书或PPT字体太小而看不清楚。

在课堂互动上，学生在上课期间，无论何时，想到什么问题都可以通过"讨论室"(Zoom Group Chat)发送问题。个性内向的学生在传统课堂上容易被忽视，此时亦可发送私信与老师直接交流。由于Zoom提供全程录像功能，可将整堂课的互动与讨论全部录像并上传至Panopto(影音平台)，供学生课后反复观看。

此外，UIC所使用的Moodle在线学习管理系统(即iSpace)可提供多样化的合作学习(如：分组、团体讨论、组员互评等)、在线考试、学习表现纪录等。

Recap

由于学生所有在线学习活动与表现均会被记录在此平台中，对于学习落后的同学(如：考试成绩偏低、平时较少参与讨论或回答问题等)，教师可以及早发现并提供必要的协助。至于每门课的微信群则作为学习社群(learning community)，师生可将平日生活中与课堂相关的应用分享给同学。

網課期間有助教幫忙嗎？他們主要做些什麼工作呢？

1. 提供Zoom測試協助工作。
2. 助教在week 0 主要工作是協助教師確保每一位學生都能順利的上網課，並且協助加選課的學生能順利加入網課與微信群組，並跟上課程進度。
3. 在課前或課後參與學生在微信或 Moodle Forum 上的討論、線上批改作業、透過評分表(Rubric)或線上會議給予學生團體或一對一的回饋。
4. 某些課的助教必須要有能力獨立透過網路平台上輔導課(tutorial)。
5. 協助錄影。

1. What makes Rodney an excellent teacher?

As a son, his mother provides him a belief that every child is equally to be loved. It can be considered as the predecessor of his own belief and one motivation of his job. As an African-American teacher, he does not just teach black people. He teaches all students who have been discriminated black people, brown people, LGBTQ, prisoner, Muslim and so on. As an immigrant, he can understand people in America whose skin is not white. He thinks that no matter what religion from and what color of the skin, as Americans, they deserved to obtain higher education. As a social study and history teacher to juvenile prisoners, he considers that those students have been misunderstood for differences from cultures. He gives those people a second chance to be a citizen in prison and treat them as same as other teenager students for he thinks that those juveniles "just made mistakes and they're paying for mistakes." For his juvenile students, he posts kid heroes and college banners to them makes them realize that they are being cared and they are not far away from colleges (the future).

The workshop activity module enables the collection, review and peer assessment of students' work.

Students can submit any digital content (files), such as word-processed documents or spreadsheets and can also type text directly into a field using the text editor.

Submissions are assessed using a multi-criteria assessment form defined by the teacher. The process of peer assessment and understanding the assessment form can be practised in advance with example submissions provided by the teacher, together with a reference assessment. Students are given the opportunity to assess one or more of their peers' submissions. Submissions and reviewers may be anonymous if required.

Students obtain two grades in a workshop activity - a grade for their submission and a grade for their assessment of their peers' submissions. Both grades are recorded in the gradebook.

A1	85	1. Hi, Minna. I think your learning objective is enough clear to lead the class. All the teaching processes are good. I want to give you a suggestion when you teach the new materials you can connect the knowledge to the real life using example.(A2) 2. This topic is interesting and challenging, I think you mostly did a great job although there are some small mistakes. Your instructions are clear and coherent, but I think you can add some detailed sentences which you would say in class, like our preparation for presentation, this could help you be more confident in the classroom teaching.(A3) 3. The picture of abacus helps to make people easily understand what she talked about.(A4)
A2	82	1. The content of this course is quite interesting and well-prepared. It is important to teach children to recognize different emotions. However, I think the review of color should be arranged in the second part rather than the first part. The examples in the first several parts are quite good but the teaching procedures in the last several parts are not so clear. There are some grammar errors but they do not influence reading.(A1) 2. Totally this plan is OK, but there isn't including a course title, I am confused about what you really want to teach for this class. In the Present new material step, you didn't present the concepts what should be learned.(A3) 3.To learn emotion through music, it seemed like a good way to motivate students' interest.(A4)
A3	91	1. The content is well-organized. Each concept is corresponded with a teaching procedure. The teaching procedure is specific because Coco use some examples to explain it. Coco teaches past tense which is important for English learner. It is easy to understand and follow this course. However, there are some grammar error but it does not influence reading.(A1) 2.It should be some specific examples provides under the saying that "Giving some example sentences about the past tense, make sure students understand the structure of past tense".(A4)
A4	90	1. The content is well-prepared especially in the part 3. It is also useful for IELTS takers. Examples are given corresponding to each part. However, the instruction in the last several parts is not so clear.(A1) 2. It should be add more examples about the turbid sound.(A4)

Online peer assessment is more effective and efficient than paper-based peer assessment

- Two simple math questions:

In Applied Ethics course (N = 55), there were eleven 5-member groups. Students were asked to conduct peer assessments to avoid free-riding using a rubric with 5 criteria.

Q1: How many copies of rubric were prepared?

$$4(\text{peer assessments}) \times 5(\text{members}) \times 11(\text{groups}) = 220$$

Q2: What is a total number of scores which were coded manually?

$$220(\text{copies}) \times 5(\text{criteria}) = 1100$$

More,

- It's difficult to collect qualitative feedback and evidence for cooperative learning.
- Students may not be able to receive feedback from their peers in a timely manner.

Foster Student Discussion After Class

- Some students prefer to have further discussion after class with their learning and communication styles.
 - Using native language
 - Put emotions in discussion.
- More, they are motivated to link what they learned in class to their own societies.

E-Learning Practices: Thanks, but no thanks

- In addition to common concerns about intellectual property, workload, and tenure, many faculties also cite pedagogical concerns (e.g., lack of interpersonal interaction, online instructional skills, etc.) (Green, Alejandro, & Brown, 2009).
- Blending often increases workload for both instructors and learners and results in what has been called the course-and-a-half phenomenon (McGee & Reis, 2012).

Dos and Don'ts for Effective E-Learning Practices

Effective E-Learning Practices

Dos

1. Do adopt e-learning practices as tools to improve overall teaching effectiveness.
2. Do have pedagogical content knowledge while adopting e-learning practices.
3. Do CREATE your own resource bank step by step and SHARE with your colleagues.
4. Do develop small learning goals for e-learning practices each semester.

Don'ts

1. Don't hesitate to attend e-learning workshops to know the potential benefits of e-learning practices in your class.
2. Don't mess up your class or life by improper use of technology. One size doesn't fit all.
3. Don't work alone.
4. Don't forget "practice makes perfect"!
